Notes compiled from ASC Sports Information Directors' Reports

CONCORDIA TEXAS

Concordia Volleyball split another weekend of Tournament play going 2-2 in the University of Dallas Invitational on September 5th-6th, 2008. The Tornados picked up wins over Presentation College and Hendrix College. Top performers for Concordia during the Dallas Invitational were sophomore Carrie Fisk (Baytown, TX) and senior Sara Keithley (Colorado Springs, CO). Fisk ended the weekend with 49 kills and 36 digs while Keithley gathered 79 digs and 10 serving aces. Overall Concordia is now 4-4 and will return to play on September 16, 2008 as they travel to Brownwood, TX to take on Howard Payne University for their American Southwest Conference Opener.

MCMURRY

The McMurry volleyball team split two matches against NAIA opponents last Saturday in Houston as they mounted a come-from-behind victory over Southwestern Assemblies of God, 3-2, before dropping a 3-1 decision to the University of St. Thomas. The split moves McMurry to 4-2 on the year as they prep for four matches next weekend at the Southwestern Invitational in Georgetown, Texas.

EAST TEXAS BAPTIST

Senior Traci Twardowski has 279 assists on the season, leaving her just 52 shy of setting a new ETBU career record. Junior Jane Hays continues to display her versatility on the court. She averaged 3.73 kills per game and 2.80 digs per game last week, and she also led the team with 8 service aces. Hays is one of just two players in the history of the program — former All-ASC standout Arden Tunnell was the other — to rank in ETBU's top 10 all-time in kills, digs and aces. Since dropping a four-game loss at D-II Southern Arkansas last Monday, the Lady Tigers have gone 5-0 and have a 15-0 mark in games played during that stretch.

MARY HARDIN-BAYLOR

The Cru picked up its first two wins of the season with victories over Jarvis Christian and Ottawa University at the U.T.-Tyler Tournament. UMHB played 10 freshmen during that tournament. The Cru will hit the road for the Southwestern University Tournament this Friday and Saturday. UMHB will not play a home match until Friday, September 19th when the Cru opens ASC play against U.T.-Dallas.

HOWARD PAYNE

The Lady Jackets continue their winning ways going 3-1 at the University of Texas at Tyler volleyball tournament. Howard Payne picked up wins over Texas College, Ottawa, and Bacone. OH Sydney Bryant was named to the All-Tournament team.

TEXAS-DALLAS

UTD went to the Colorado College Invitational this past weekend and came away with the Tournament Championship and 3 All-Tournament players including the Tournament MVP. After UTD disposed of UW-Stout 3-0, the Comets suffered its first loss of the season when they battled George Fox during their second match of the tournament. George Fox came away with a 3-1 victory in what was a match-up of undefeated teams at the time. UTD rebounded on the second day of the tournament by defeating Colorado College 3-0 in the morning match to force the rematch in the Championship. UTD won the Championship 3-1. Sophomores Amber Wetz (OH) and Niki Calverley (S) were named to the All-Tournament team for the second weekend in a row. Junior OH Kyleigh Irish was also named to the team and was chosen the Tournament MVP.

TEXAS LUTHERAN

The Bulldogs started defense of the American Southwest Conference women's volleyball title with two victories this week in ASC play...The Bulldogs won at home in five against HPU and won on the road in three against Sul Ross. TLU has dedicated its volleyball court and renamed it Susan Duke Court at Tostengard Activity Center. Duke coached the Bulldogs to more than 700 victories and led the TLU (then TLC) to two AIAW-II national championships. She also coached two U.S. Olympians — Patty Dowdell and Laurie Flachmeier Corbelli.

MISSISSIPPI COLLEGE

The Mississippi College volleyball team won two of their three matches on the week, including opening the conference season with a three-game loss to East Texas Baptist. The Lady Choctaws picked up wins over Alcorn State and Crichton College on Friday and Saturday.

TEXAS-TYLER

The University of Texas at Tyler volleyball team went 3-1 in the 2008 Azalea/UT Tyler Invitational. The Patriots swept Ottawa and Texas College on Day 1 of the Tournament. On Day 2, UT Tyler fell to Rhodes, 3-1, but came from behind to beat Bacone, 3-2. The Patriots will travel to Sherman this week to take on No. 13 Austin College on Tuesday.
